RE: Dana Corporation

Please be advised that Dana Corporation, a current self-insured company, filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 protection of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code on March 3, 2006.

Dana Corporation has been self-insured since 6/1/94.

A motion has been filed and granted in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court allowing the company to continue to pay its workers' compensation claim obligations.

Questions regarding workers' compensation claims may be directed to:
